

Day one - Arrival and Athens visit

We arrived in Athens and met up with the Welsh team and Juoni from Finland. Whilst we waited for the Spanish to arrive we visited the acropolis and other ancient sites in Athens.

When we left England the weather was very cold and wet. In Athens it was 19 degrees and sunny!

We walked through the narrow old streets of Athens and saw the Roman Market square and library.

A quick stop at a local Souvaki bar to get a traditional Greek meal for tea...chicken Souvaki, salad, chips and tatziki!

Our final stop before heading back on the coach to go to Patra was to the Greek parliament building where the changing of the guard was taking place.
