A Choose a character from your book, draw a picture of them and write a description of who they are, what they do in the book and what you think of them.	B Describe a setting in your book. Use different expanded noun phrases to give me a picture in my head.	C Write a book review telling me and your friends about the book and what you liked or didn't like. Should we read it? Why?	D Hop in to the story yourself and write what you would do if you were there; or how the story would change.
E What have you learnt from the book? Tell me what new things you have found out about since reading this book.	F Change a character in your book. How would your chosen character be different and why? What would they do instead? And how would this change the book?	G Create a new cover for the book. Become a publisher and design a cover that is different from the original but is just as eye-catching.	H Make a poster for the classroom wall telling us about your book. Drawings and writing should be used to advertise the book.
