

What to do today

IMPORTANT! Parent or Carer – Read this page with your child and check that you are happy with what they have to do and with any weblinks or use of the internet.

1. Read Dear Postman and enjoy it together

- Use the Reading Strategies to help with new and tricky words.

2. Look at sentence punctuation

- Study the letter using Looking at Sentences. Focus on sentence endings. Use Punctuation to explore why they are there.
- Write a sentence of your own that uses a question mark. Repeat for a sentence with an exclamation mark.

3. Write two short letters

- Using the Letter Template, write a letter asking the postman to bring you something a bit strange!
- Write a letter back from the postman, explaining that he couldn't get it, but that he has got you something else instead.

Now try these Fun-Time Extras

- On Please, Mr Postman draw and label further animals and the things you think they would have asked for.
- Write a letter to your postman or woman thanking them for all their hard work delivering your family's letters and parcels.
- Would you like to be a postman or woman? Give your answers on Being a Postman or Postwoman

Reading Strategies

When you come across a word you don't know, use these strategies to help you read it!

Sound out the word This is the first strategy to use!
Break words into syllables e.g. cat-er-piller	Look for smaller words within words e.g. c-at
Skip the word and read the rest of the sentence to try and work out what it says	Did the sentence you read make sense ?
Use the pictures	Remember the text

Punctuation

Full stop	.	We always put a full stop at the end of a normal sentence.	Sam wrote a letter.
Comma	,	We use commas to put a little pause in a sentence and to put a gap between things that are in a list	Sam, feeling excited, waited for the postman.  Sam used a pen, two pencils, a rubber and a crayon.
Question mark	?	We put a question mark at the end of a question instead of a full stop.	Are you OK?
Exclamation mark	!	We use an exclamation mark to show something is written with emphasis or extra strength.	That's amazing!  Come over here, Sam!

Looking at Sentences

1. Look at sentence punctuation

- In the first letter, point out these:
  - full stop,
  - comma,
  - question mark
  - exclamation mark.
- Use Punctuation above ↑ to explore why they are there.
- Find further examples of these punctuation marks in the letters.
- Practise forming them on scrap paper.
- Write a sentence of your own that uses a question mark.
- Repeat for a sentence with an exclamation mark.

2. Write two short letters

Using the Letter Template below, write a letter asking the postman to bring you something a bit strange!

- Try to use a comma, a question mark and an exclamation mark as well as full stops in your letter.
- Write a letter back from the postman explaining he couldn't get it but he has got you something else instead.
